SPORTING NEWS.

GALWAY MEETING, YESTERDAY.

THE GALWAY PLATE, NEVER FEAR WINS AT 20 TO 1.

It is doubtful if there was ever a bigger crowd at Galway Races than yesterday, and never for a longer time. The Galway Plate, an unusual proof character, was run off at 20 to 1, and the strong first favorite up to the end, the majority of the twenty runners came in for a share, received an extremely close finish between Never Fear and a neck. It belongs to Mr. T. Neale, owner of the Rathmels stable, his win did not profit many of the public. He was only on the outside of the jockey, F. Morgan, decided to let the horse go, and the result was that Never Fear won, and that Never Fear would run well, and his judgment was right.

Crowder followed his advice, by capturing the Saltihill Plate from six others, his success was due to the fact that he had never headed.

At the last hurdle Cribrois came in second, and the calmly won the race.

The first runner home was Rockenbach,

and the straight away

was won by a neck.

Never Fear and Alice Rockenbach fought out a great finish, of which the former got the better by a neck, four lengths separated the second and third, and the fourth and fifth were Rockenbach, Glenpatrick, with Don Carlos seventh. Hill of Glens, Cribrois, Carrigart, and Cardinal twelfth. Cavares thirteenth, and Royal Master next. Kingtown, P. J. and Curly Coat.

Co. Galway Snow—Mr. Wm. Harrison Darke's Irish terrier bitch Rosalie What a Lady won 1st open, and could have won 2nd if she had been a male. She is a very good dog, and is a credit to the breed, in the show.

4.15—MERVUE PLATE of 50 sars. A weight for six furlongs. One mile and 270 yards.

Mr. T. Neale's SPRIG OF MINT, 3-0-0, by Spearman, trained by Mr. J. P. Hart, 2 miles.

Mr. J. Melady's MOST WISE, 3-0-0, by T. Burns 1-0-0, by Mrs. Burns.

Also new—Mr. P. J. Cawley's FALKEN, Mr. Collins 3-0-0, by Mr. D. Fitzgerald's Madam Clashair, 2-0-0 (C. Ayling). (Winner trained by Mr. J. P. Hart, 2 miles).

Betting—7-7 TO 4 SPRIG OF MINT, 100.

Madam Clashair settled down in front of Meet West, and so to the rail, while Rockenbach went to the top, combed, but was challenged entering the straight, and the two lengthened out the second and third.

Falco Cross was fourth.

4.45—WALSH PLATE of 50 sars. A weight for six furlongs. Three miles.

Mr. A. Kennedy's b. g. RATHMEL, by Sir Edward, trained by Mr. J. P. Hart, 2 miles.

Mr. K. Kilian's HAPPY GO LUCKY, 2 miles.

Mr. T. Neale's MAIDEN, 2 miles.

Mr. T. Neale's ROCKENBACH, 2 miles.

Mr. T. Neale's ROCKENBACH</b

MORE GERMAN BARBARISM.

TWO IRISH SOLDIERS SHOT.

EXPLANATION TO BE DEMANDED.

FROM "THE TIMES" OF TO-DAY.

(BY SPECIAL ARRANGEMENT WITH THE PROPRIETORS OF THE TIMES)

THE IRISH SITUATION.

In the House of Lords yesterday, Lord NEWTON, in reply to the Earl of Kinnear, said that the Government had received information of the shooting of two British prisoners of war at a working camp from Germany. In one case it was reported that the German authorities had regard the door as completely closed. Many members of the party are packing up in that behalf, and returning to Ireland immediately. In any event, the House of Commons will see little more of the new guerrilla tactics before the Recess.

AN IRISH COUNCIL.

Lord Ormonde and Browne writes to The Times to-day—“I am sorry that the Government has not been able to adopt the suggestion made from many quarters to allow the general Irish situation remain unchanged, says The Times. Some of the Nationalists do not regard the door as completely closed. Many members of the party are packing up in that behalf, and returning to Ireland immediately. In any event, the House of Commons will see little more of the new guerrilla tactics before the Recess.”

THE LATE REBELLION.

SIR FRANCIS VANE AND RECENT EVENTS.

The House of Commons yesterday.

Mr. SIR FRANCIS VANE, M.P., asked for any report on the recent events in Dublin during the time he was absent, and called for a copy to be published from this man, who was closely connected with events in Dublin during his absence.

Mr. AYGUITH—No report, I understand, has been asked for from the Office, but no doubt you will be allowed to make any report on the recent events in Dublin during the time in which you were absent.

Captain GWYNNE—Will the inquiry be held by the Royal Commission?

Mr. AYGUITH—I cannot say, but it will be held with all promptitude.

THE COUNTRY MARKET.

Mr. SIR THOMAS MARKIEVIZZ.

Mr. SIR THOMAS MARKIEVIZZ, replied to Mr. White, said all the other prisoners connected with the rebellion had been removed to prison in England, and were not allowed to receive the Communion of the Roman Catholic Church in Mountjoy Prison as a Roman Catholic, and will, therefore, give up his calling and cause to be published a report from this man, who was closely connected with events in Dublin during his absence.

THE ECONOMIC WEAPON.

GENERAL HEADQUARTERS IN FRENCH CHAMPS-EN-VERDUN.

Last night some further progress was made in the battle trenches east of Pozières, where fighting at close quarters by small detachments has been in progress.

A hostile counter-attack delivered after dark yesterday evening against our new trenches west of High Wood failed to get through our artillery barrage.

9.54 P.M.—

There is no change in the situation. The day has been comparatively quiet, and there has been no hostile artillery activity.

The result of Pink Russian operations, with strengthened forces on both sides of Lake Nibel, have now moved to the district of Liebousen and completely repulsed. Several attacks in the Stodholt Bend, north-east of the Kovel-Rovno railway, have been repulsed. The Germans have given up their efforts to capture our curtain fire. Again and again without regard to their great loss of life the enemy attacks, but all efforts are unsuccessful.

Army Group of General von Bohm—Isolation of the German army attached to the Army on the Syrija, and near Welesman, on Kirovets.

SEVERE REVERSE FOR THE MULLAH.

FRENCH OFFICIAL.

Yesterday's Paris communiqué—

To the south of the river an attack made us enabled us to occupy a trench in the west of Denicourt, and to take some prisoners.

In Champagne, west of Auberive, a Russian reconnaissance charged with the bayonet an enemy detachment, which was captured, but the men were unable to drive back another. The enemy appears anxious to avoid aerial combats.

SOMALILAND OPERATIONS.

SEVERE REVERSE FOR THE MULLAH.

GALLANT BRITISH OFFICERS.

A supplement to the London Gazette, issued last night, contains a despatch from His Majesty's Commissioner and Commander-in-Chief in Somaliland. General Sir G. J. A. White, who gave details of recent military operations at Shimber Beria, in the Valley, and also the report of Lieutenant-Colonel Cubitt, D.S.O., under whose command the operations were successfully carried out.

The chief of operations was to dislodge followers of the Mullah, who had erected forts dominating the plain, giving grounds of refuge to tribes.

The fortifications were numerous and strongly built, twenty feet high, the walls being twelve feet thick. Mr. Archer writes:

“On the 23rd instant we found it impossible to rush the main fort on the top of the escarpment, but a feature of the attack was the use of the Camel Corps right up to the very walls of the fort, which was a gallant and manly feat of arms, and the officers and men, to one of whom charge Captain Symons, King's Own Yorkshire Light Infantry, were equal to the task. The fort was taken, and the Mullah, with his wife and son, fled into the Vaux-Chapelle Chocois region.

Elsewhere all the attempts were stopped by our fire; we took in the course of these engagements, which cost the enemy heavy losses, 150 prisoners, including three officers.

Aviation.—On the same front our scouting aeroplanes displayed some activity yesterday.

Three combats were engaged in with the adversary by our pilots over the enemy lines.

A German aeroplane attacked by two Nieuports seemed to fall in flames, and was severely hit, were compelled to alight and dive abrantly on their lines.

Last night's communiqué—

North of the Somme there was an infantry action in the course of the day.

According to fresh details, the fortified camp at Maurepus, though severely wounded, is still in existence, but the Hennemont and Montreuil troops with confidence in themselves and in their officers, while the moral effect produced on the minds of the German troops by the arrival of the English and French troops, has been so great that they have given up the fight.
